Note: A biography along with the fully completed application form must be submitted to be considered for this role.

Amy works as an Assistant Director of Customers and Communities in social housing. She has over 20 years of experience in community engagement roles in the public sector. She is an experienced trustee with a broad understanding of the importance of good governance in public life. She is passionate that statutory and local voluntary services work together to achieve the best results for residents. She is keen to ensure equitable outcomes for marginalised groups and to ensure that learning is implemented from lived experiences. Having lived and worked in South-West Herts for over 20 years, she has a broad stakeholder network.
